

Concrete and Masonry

Provider: ABC of Alaska

Length: 1 Hours

Cost: $25

Cost Unit: Cost is not identified

Website

<http://www.abcalaska.org/en-us/educationtraining.aspx>

Places: Anchorage

This course covers OSHA's Subpart Q, Concrete and Masonry Construction and reviews requirements to protect construction workers from premature removal of formwork, the failure to brace masonry walls, the failure to support pre-cast panels, the inadvertent operation of equipment and the failure to guard reinforcing steel. It also covers health hazards and control information including skin, eye and inhalation hazards and associated protective measures. It is offered in both English and Spanish.

Related Occupations

Brickmasons and Blockmasons

Stonemasons

Supervisors of Construction and Extraction Workers

Tile and Marble Setters

Department of Labor and Workforce Development, Research and Analysis Section
P.O. Box 115501
Juneau, Alaska 99811-5501
Phone: 907.465.4500, Fax: 907.523.9654
September 29, 2016